by Stacey Olson

What does fun mean to you? When was the last time you had good old fashioned fun? When did you last laugh so hard that your eyes watered? What do you like to do? What did you consider fun when you were younger? Are those same things still what you consider fun? If not, why?

Sadly, many of us have outgrown the things we considered fun in the past and worse, we haven't gotten around to identifying new things that we enjoy to do. If this is you, True North is here to perform a FUN-tervention.

START HAVING FUN

1. Make a list of the things that you enjoyed doing as a kid. Then, go over your list and highlight those things that still sound appealing.
2. Google "fun ideas for adults" or "bucket list ideas". You're looking for ideas on fun things you may want to try. Once you have your list, just like before, highlight the ideas that sound most interesting.
3. Put Fun In Your Schedule. If you don't schedule something, it's unlikely to happen. Therefore, if you want to play more and have more fun, you have to schedule it.
4. Combine Fun With Other Activities. Think of the things on your to-do list, and then look for ways to make them more fun. For example, when most people think of exercise they think of self-sacrifice and drudgery. However, exercise can be fun. (see page 8 for some FUN exercise ideas.)

As an adult, you have every right to enjoy yourself. In fact, adults need play. Laughter helps to relieve stress. George Bernard Shaw said, "We don't stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing."

START HAVING FUN |

PLAY LIKE A KID

Number 1: Make a list of the things that you enjoyed doing as a kid. Remember when you were a kid and didn't if you looked ridiculous? YOU laughed even if others didn't think it was funny. You ran around, sweaty, playing tag or you stayed up late watching a movie and eating popcorn. Well, it's time to channel your inner child. Make that list, then, go over your list and highlight those things that still sound appealing.

HERE'S A FEW IDEAS:

- Christmas dinner.
- Going swimming.
- Going to your grandparent's house.
- Hearing the ice-cream truck music.
- Getting pocket money.
- Going fishing.
- Learning to ride a bike.
- Making a fort.
- Building with Lego's.
- Coloring a picture.
- Playing tag.
- Swinging at the park.
- Jumping on a bed.
- Playing board games.
- Getting a pet.
- Picking out candy.
- Buying your a record album or cassette tape.
- Building sandcastles.
- Climbing a tree.
- Family holidays.
- Skimming stones.
- Searching for rocks.
- Sitting cross-legged in assemblies.
- Watching cartoons.
- Sleepovers at a friend's house.
- Writing notes to your BFF.
- Flying a kite.
- Bedtime story.
- Getting a sticker on a worksheet.
- Arts and crafts.
- Bath time.
- Jumping in puddles.
- Sledding down a hill.
- Buying school clothes & school supplies.
- Going to a museum.
- Playing with leaves.
- Doing a scavenger hunt.

Margo has been my lifelong BFF. ↗

“We didn't realize we were making memories, we just knew we were having fun.”

TIP: MAKE TIME FOR YOUR OLD FRIENDS

WE GET BUSY LIVING LIFE, WORKING, RUNNING THE KIDS AROUND THAT OFTEN WE FORGET TO KEEP IN TOUCH WITH OLD FRIENDS. HERE'S AN IDEA. PICK UP THE PHONE AND CALL YOUR BEST FRIEND. MAKE THE CALL, DON'T TEXT. THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT HEARING THE VOICE OF A GOOD FRIEND THAT MAKES YOUR HEART SMILE. RECONNECT WITH YOUR CHILDHOOD FRIENDS AND YOUR BEST FRIENDS FROM HIGH SCHOOL OR COLLEGE. RELIVING THE GOOD OLD DAYS CAN BE A FUN ACTIVITY. IT WILL REMIND YOU OF WHO YOU WERE AND HELP YOU REMEMBER WHAT YOU CONSIDERED FUN.

MAKE PLANS FOR JUST THE TWO OF YOU TO GO TO DINNER. OFTEN AS ADULTS WE WILL BRING OUR SPOUSE, PARTNER OR KIDS WHEN WE VISIT WITH FRIENDS OR GO OUT TO DINNER. SPEND TIME ONE ON ONE WITH YOUR BFF. TALK ABOUT FUN TIMES AND RELIVE OLD MEMORIES. TRY TO MAKE YOUR FRIEND LAUGH. SPREADING HAPPINESS ALSO MAKES US HAPPY. FRIENDS ARE THE FIRST PEOPLE BESIDES OUR FAMILY THAT WE FALL IN LOVE WITH. THEY KNEW US BACK WHEN AND STILL CARE. REACH OUT AND KEEP THAT FRIENDSHIP GROWING.

PLAN TO HAVE FUN

Number 2: Google “fun ideas for adults” or “bucket list ideas“. You’re looking for ideas on fun things you may want to try. Remember when you weren’t afraid to try anything? Jumping off the swing, or trying to flip over the Once you have your list, just like before, highlight the ideas that sound most interesting.

"People rarely succeed unless they have fun in what they are doing."

Dale Carnegie

HERE'S A FEW IDEAS:

- Try a new restaurant.
- Going swimming.
- Throw Axes
- Buy ice-cream from an ice cream truck.
- Give yourself an allowance to spend it frivolously.
- Ride a bike.
- Read a comic book.
- Play arcade game.
- Color a picture and hang it on your fridge.
- Go drive go-carts.
- Swinging at the park.
- Explore a neighboring town.
- Play board games.
- Buy a pet fish.
- Bake something.
- Download some new music.
- Put together a model.
- Plant a tree.
- Have a thanksgiving meal in October.
- Skip stones.
- Go hiking.
- Do yoga outside.
- Watching an movie that was your favorite as a kid.
- Go on vacation with friend's.
- Send snail mail and a package to your BFF.
- Hang a hammock.
- Start reading a book at every night before bed.
- Put a sticker on your yeti.
- Start a new arts and crafts project.
- Take a bubble bath.
- Play in the rain.
- Drop a dollar on purpose.
- Buy a new notebook and some new pens.
- Go to a museum.
- Buy a plant.
- Plan a scavenger hunt for someone.

There are friends,
there is family,
and then there are friends that become family.

TIP: PLAN AN OUTING WITH YOUR FRIENDS

THERE ARE FRIENDS WHO ARE IN YOUR EVERYDAY LIFE. THE ONES WHO YOU CAN BORROW ANYTHING FROM, THE ONES WHO WILL HELP WITH YOUR KIDS, FRIENDS YOU CAN CALL IF YOU RUN OUT OF GAS, NEED TO HAVE A GOOD CRY, OR A GLASS OF WINE. YOU KNOW, THOSE FRIENDS WHO YOU CAN BE YOURSELF AROUND AND WHO YOU ARE AROUND ON A REGULAR BASIS.

COMPARE SCHEDULES AND MAKE PLANS TO DO SOMETHING. SITTING NEXT TO ONE ANOTHER AT A FOOTBALL GAME OR WORKING TOGETHER DOESN'T COUNT AS QUALITY TIME. SEARCH OUT A FUN ACTIVITY AND INVITE YOUR FRIENDS TO TAG ALONG. SOME IDEAS ARE AXE THROWING, A CONCERT, TRYING A NEW RESTAURANT, CHECKING OUT A MUSEUM, GOING TO SCOUT FLEA MARKET, OR GO BOWLING. DO SOMETHING LOW STRESS AND FUN. TRY SOMETHING NEW. THE GOAL IS TO DE-STRESS AND LAUGH TOGETHER.

SCHEDULE THE FUN

Number 3: Start putting fun in your schedule. If you don't schedule something, it's unlikely to happen. Therefore, if you want to play more and have more fun, you have to schedule it. Make yourself a promise, once you've scheduled fun, commit to not cancelling.

HERE'S A FEW IDEAS:

- Make reservations at a restaurant.
- Buy concert tickets.
- Book a trip.
- Fuel up and plan a road trip.
- Invite friends over for a wine tasting night.
- Make dinner for the family.
- Start a list of fun things to do.
- Host a movie night.
- Join a team.
- Organize a progressive dinner.
- Volunteer.
- Follow Road Trip Illinois (facebook group)
- Hike a State Park.
- Go Camping.
- Have a dance party in your living room.
- Make hotel reservations.
- Plan your own skip day.
- Take a class.
- Wander thru a book store.
- Rent a canoe.
- Go to a minor league baseball game.
- Try something new.
- Make a lunch date.
- Attend an outdoor festival.
- Drive to look at holiday decorations.
- Rearrange your furniture.
- Handwrite letters to your friends.
- If someone invited you to do something, don't say no.
- Paint along to an episode of Bob Ross.
- Rent a bike in towns along the I&M Canal.
- Play cards & order pizza.
- Shop True North.

COMBINE FUN

Number 4: Combine Fun With Other Activities. Think of the things on your to-do list, and then look for ways to make them more fun. For example, when most people think of exercise they think of self-sacrifice and drudgery. However, exercise can be fun.

HERE'S A FEW IDEAS:

Shop around for an exercise class that you enjoy.

Try SoulCycle

Zumba,

Pole Dancing

Kick Boxing.

Take a Dance Class.

Aerobics.

Yoga.

Join a sports team.

If you loved to play soccer a kid, shoot some goals.

Play basketball.

Join a softball team.

Start a bowling team.

Walk around True North

FUN IDEA: Gamify your exercise.

As an illustration, if you jog, get an app that lets you pretend that you're being chased by zombies. You'll be staying fit, surviving a zombie apocalypse, and having fun, all at the same time.

Remember bouncy castles? Those were so much fun! The adult equivalent is a mini-trampoline! And it turns out that it is one of the best exercises that there is.

Its fun for the kids & grandkids if you participate. Kick the ball, run with them, slide down the slide at the park. You'll be getting exercise, having fun and creating memories.

"Give your kids adventures, not things. Have stories to tell not stuff to show"

INVITE OTHERS

5. Invite others. Have fun with your friends and family. Make memories and make time to have laugh. Remember that your family can be your friends too.

HERE'S A FEW IDEAS:

- Christmas dinner.
- Going swimming.
- Going to your grandparent's house.
- Hearing the ice-cream truck music.
- Getting pocket money.
- Buying penny sweets from the village shop.
- Learning to ride a bike.
- Making a fort.
- Building with Lego's.
- Coloring a picture.
- Playing tag.
- Swinging at the park.
- Jumping on a bed.
- Playing board games.
- Getting a pet.
- Picking out candy.
- Buying your a record album or cassette tape.

- Writing notes to your BFF.
- Flying a kite.
- Bedtime story.
- Getting a sticker on a worksheet.
- Arts and crafts.
- Bath time.
- Jumping in puddles.
- Finding a rope swing in the woods.
- Buying school clothes & school supplies.
- Going to a museum.
- Playing with leaves.

SMILES everyone

by Caroline Lipinski, Vintage Soul

"Smiles Everyone, Smiles".

That was the famous line by Ricardo Montalban in Fantasy Island that we all remember. What is it about a smile?

Did you know that October 1st is World Smile Day? So, lets think about whats so special about a smile.

Smiling has been proven to reduce stress, help elevate your mood & keep you positive, and it has been scientifically proven to have a ripple effect...so if you smile most likely others around you will smile! Here are some fun facts that may make you smile:

- + The average adult smiles about 40 times per day.
- + Smiling is more contagious than the flu!
- + Smiling is our first facial expression.
- + Babies are born with the ability to smile.
- + Smiling makes you more attractive to others.
- + A smile is the universal sign for happiness.
- + Smiling is intercultural!
- + It's easier to smile than it is to frown.

These are a few of the things in my life that make me smile...

- a handwritten card or letter arriving in the mail
- looking at old family photographs
- a child's laugh
- chocolate anything
- finding the perfect gift for someone
- reading a book on the beach
- a great hair day
- getting the first spoonful of peanut butter out of the jar
- the magic of a sunset
- the first snowfall of the season
- the smell of freshly laundered sheets on my bed
- scoring a one-of-a-kind vintage find
- leaves crunching under my feet
- a good cup of coffee
- hugs, hugs, hugs
- singing along to a favorite song
- fresh flowers on my kitchen table
- the smell of bread (and cookies) baking in the oven
- holding a baby
- finding money in a coat pocket
- having my house cleaned all at one time
- spending time with my family
- turning off the a/c and opening the windows
- sitting by an outdoor fire in a cozy sweatshirt
- the smell in the air after a spring rain
- finishing a puzzle
- checking things off my to-do list
- good food & good conversation with good friends
- watching White Christmas each year
- seeing my loved ones smile
- a just washed car
- the first gooey bite of deep dish pizza
- the smell of an old book
- homemade soup on a chilly autumn day

The New Bigger than ever Crystal Ship...

by Shannon Maraffa
Crystal Ship

Have you heard? We've expanded! Crystal Ship has been in the True North family since the little shop in downtown Morris. We started years ago as a vintage seller before moving onto our handmade jewelry and crystal shop – and we missed the vintage aspect.

This new space at True North was the perfect opportunity to blend it all together! With this new space, we wanted it to have a mini boutique feel to it. There is plenty of all the crystal jewelry you know and love, our signature crystal sets, handmade Sage bundles, crystal infused oils and gifts. But we have added an assortment of handmade and second hand home décor, second hand clothing and more!

We are so excited for this new space, let us know what you think! Make sure you tag your finds online - @crystalshipjewelry.

Welcome to the new Crystal Ship boutique experience exclusive to True North, Morris, IL!

CRYSTAL SHIP WAS FOUNDED IN 2015, BY SHANNON,
A LOCAL ILLINOIS BUSINESS WOMAN, MOM, JEWELRY
DESIGNER AND THRIFTING ENTHUSIAST.

WE USE NATURAL CRYSTALS, STONES, VARIOUS METALS
AND MATERIALS TO CREATE HANDMADE ARTISAN
JEWELRY WITH MEANING AND POSITIVE INTENTION.

WE HAVE BEEN A PART OF THE TRUE NORTH FAMILY FOR MANY YEARS AND ARE EXCITED TO BRING YOU NOW NOT ONLY OUR JEWELRY, CRYSTALS AND GIFTS, BUT A CURATED
SELECTION OF HANDPICKED VINTAGE, RECYCLED DÉCOR, HANDMADE DÉCOR AND SECOND-HAND FASHION,
RESULTING IN THE ULTIMATE MINI BOUTIQUE EXPERIENCE.
